

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

EXHIBITION: JEFF BURTON

EXHIBITION DATES:

OPENING: FRIDAY JANUARY 12TH 6 – 8 PM
GALLERY HOURS: TUESDAY – SATURDAY 10 – 6 PM

EXHIBITION DESCRIPTION:

For his fourth one-person exhibition in New York, Jeff Burton will present a series of new color photographs that continues his exploration of the cultural and sexual landscape of southern California. Fueled by his own participation in Hollywood's sex/film industry, Burton makes work that champions desire and pleasure through a visual language of glamour, excess and beauty. His photographs travel seamlessly from porn shoots in the San Fernando Valley, to the empty sidewalks of the Hollywood Walk of Fame, to a mini-mall in the desert that doubles as the Liberace Museum. For the first time, Burton will also present a video portrait of Los Angeles' Historic Cultural Monument #III, popularly regarded as the Hollywood Sign.

In early 2001 Powerhouse Books will release Jeff Burton's first American publication, Dreamland, with an essay by Dave Hickey.
